

I urge the FCC not to grant the petition for a declaratory judgment that certain provisions of New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law are not enforceable on grounds of federal preemption, particularly in light of this administration's purported support of state's rights over federal rights.